

No.19

RICKY STUART

HE may have originally made his mark in rugby union, but Ricky Stuart was every bit the rugby league halfback: cunning, cantankerous, crafty, you name it. The Raiders, and rugby league itself, are forever thankful "Sticky" said to hell with the game they play in heaven. His huge torpedo passes and raking kicks feature prominently in 90s highlight packages and were the magic ingredient in Canberra's three title wins.

- PM

CLUB FOOTY

Canberra 1988-98, 203 games, 39 tries, 7 goals, 25 field goals, 195 points; Bulldogs 1999-2000, 40 games, 2 tries, 2 field goals.

REP FOOTY

City Origin 1990, 2 tries, Country Origin 1991; 14 Origins for NSW 1990-94, 3 tries; 9 Tests and 13 tour games for Australia 1990-94, 1 try.

GRAND TOTAL: 281 games, 47 tries, 7 goals, 28 field goals, 230 points.